

United Way raises $2.8 million so far

Goal by Feb. 7
is $3.25 million

CORINTHIA MCCOY

cmccoy@greenbaypressgazette.com

The Brown County United Way has raised nearly $2.8 million so far during the organization's 2007 campaign, exceeding similar figures from 2006 by more than $227,000.

More than 90 companies

By the numbers

The following is a list of goals and amounts in millions raised by the Brown County United Way during the past five years.

Year	Goal	Raised
■ 2002	$4	$3.7
■ 2003	$3.7	$3.5
■ 2004	$3.7	$3.3
■ 2005	$3.4	$3.1
■ 2006	$3.25	$3.12

have yet to turn in funding, and the organization awaits more donations from residents, the United Way said in a press release. The campaign ends Feb. 7.

United Way hopes to reach its goal of $3.25 million.

Contributions to the local organization support almost 50 programs and initiatives in Brown County and a community impact model to research needs in the community and partnership building. To donate, call (920) 432-3393, or go to www.browncountyunitedway.org.

'07 campaign facts

■ Raised last year:

$3.12 million

■ 2007 campaign goal:

$3.25 million

■ Amount raised so far:

Nearly $2.8 million

■ Amount raised from the same companies in 2006:

$2.56 million

■ Percent over last year:

8.9 percent

■ Progress toward goal:

85.7 percent