

Emerging Leaders Matter

News You Can Use - March 2005

In This Issue:

Did You Know?
Junior Achievement Business Challenge
2005 Goals
Healthcare for the Homeless Week
Intern Spotlight

2005 Goals

The Emerging Leaders Society has released their goals for 2005. The group ended 2004 with 150 members and has set their goal for 2005 at 200 members. After more than doubling their volunteer hours in 2004, completing 449 hours on a goal of 200, this year's goal is 750 hours.

To learn more about the Emerging Leaders Society or to confirm membership, please contact Jennifer at 432-3393 ext. 8644.

Did You Know?

Up to 11,000 children in the Green Bay public school district have limited access to which of the following?

- A. Transportation
- B. After-school activities
- C. Dental care

The answer is C, "Dental care". Brown County United Way's Emerging Leaders Society will be holding a panel presentation and discussion about this pressing need in our community.

To learn more, please join us at the Green Bay Country Club on April 14, 2005 from 5:00 - 7:00pm. A panel presentation will begin at 5:45pm. Watch for more information, or to RSVP, contact Brown County United Way at 432-3393.

Healthcare for the Homeless Week

The National Healthcare for the Homeless Council has designated March 21-26, 2005 as Healthcare for the Homeless Week. During this time, the Council hopes to build support for local HCH projects by increasing public knowledge on the critical link between health and homelessness. By doing so, the council will strengthen the will of our communities to resolve homelessness and reform the health care system. The theme for the week is "Saving Lives. Building Community." For more information, visit the website: www.wphca.org/new.html.

Junior Achievement Business Challenge

On Saturday, February 19, the Emerging Leaders Society volunteered their time to act as runners and assist with data entry at the Junior Achievement Business Challenge hosted by NWTC.

The Business Challenge gave students the opportunity to experience what it is like to run a business. Teams CEO by making all business decisions for their company. The Challenge gives students an inside into what is like to run their own business. Students compete against one another for scholarships.

To learn more about volunteer opportunities with the Emerging Leaders Society, please contact Jennifer at 432-3393 ext. 8644 or visit our website at www.browncountyunitedway.org.

Intern Spotlight

Lexie Hassinger is the Communications Design Intern at Brown County United Way. She is a senior at the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay. She will be graduating this coming May with a photography major and a graphic design minor. Keeping herself very busy, along with the internship at the United Way, she holds an internship through UWGB's art program, and is also very involved with the school's Art Agency. She has also worked at the Weidner Center's ticket office for the last three and a half years.

Lexie grew up in the town of Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin. She spends her free time working on the pieces for her Senior Exhibition at the end of this semester, and doing freelance design projects for friends and family.