

March 22, 2004

Emerging Leaders Society Hosts Event with the Mayor

WI, Green Bay- The Emerging Leaders Society will host a Fireside Chat with Green Bay Mayor Jim Schmitt, Thursday, March 25, at the Green Bay Country Club, 2400 Klondike Road. The Mayor will be discussing local community awareness issues. The event begins at 5:00pm, ending at 6:30 and is open to the public. An RSVP is required due to limited seating.

In association with the United Way of Brown County, the Emerging Leaders Society is a network of young community leaders that invest time, talents and financial resources in our community through volunteering and charitable giving.

“The Emerging Leaders Society is an energetic group of individuals who are committed to community awareness and involvement,” Schmitt said adding, “this talented group of community leaders are obtaining the skills needed to continue the proud tradition of strong leadership in the City of Green Bay.”

To RSVP for this event or to become an Emerging Leader, please contact Jennifer at 432-3393 ext. 8644 or email at Jennifer@uwbc4u.org.

###

Media Contact: Jen Fietz
Director of Communications
920/432-3393 ext. 8625
jen@uwbc4u.org

