FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

More than $5,000 in computer equipment to be given away

Brown County United Way and IBM will consider applications until July 21

Green Bay - The Brown County United Way is seeking applications from local human services agencies to receive a grant of computer equipment worth more than $5,000.

IBM Corporation will donate the equipment, along with $3,500 to the Brown County United Way, as part of the corporation's nationwide charitable giving program.

Donated items include:

- Yong Explorer PC System, including a 17-inch monitor, keyboard, power strip, speakers and desk
- IBM ThinkCentre desktop computer(s)
- IBM ThinkPad computer(s)

Eligible agencies must be a registered 501(c)(3) located in Brown County that administers programs for early learning, youth education and development, literacy, job training, community and family services and/or support for seniors or the disabled.

Final selection of the recipient or recipients will be determined by a panel of IBM and Brown County United Way staff.

This donation will enable the recipient agency or agencies to provide computer access and skills training for youth, the unemployed and the disadvantaged.

All applications must be submitted no later than 12 p.m. Friday, July 21 to the Brown County United Way.

Further requirements, restrictions and an applications form can be downloaded at <http://www.browncountyunitedway.org/communityimpact/ICs/RFP.htm>.
