Brown County United Way and Aspiro Play Ball

GREEN BAY – Volunteers from the Brown County United Way Emerging Leaders +Service group will team up with ASPIRO to play softball with ASPIRO clients Saturday, June 16.

ASPIRO, an agency that provides services and programs for all individuals in Brown County with cognitive disabilities, will field the team. EL+S members will coach, score and help administrate the game.

The ballgame will be held across the street from Aspiro, 1673 Dousman Street.

According to Brown County United Way Development Manager Vicki Cornell, six EL+S volunteers have agreed to participate. The Brown County United Way would like to field 10 volunteers, said Cornell.

“It should be a great time for everyone involved,” Cornell said.

For some pregame fun, EL+S members will do maintenance work on the ASPIRO building from 4 to 5 p.m. The softball game will start immediately following cleanup.

The game is scheduled to conclude at 7 p.m.

To volunteer or for more information, please contact Vicki Cornell at (920) 432-3393, ext. 8625 or Vicki@browncountyunitedway.org.
